

Austral Suburb Profile

Austral (2179) is a suburb of Sydney, 42 km south-west of Sydney (CBD). Located in Sydney's South West, the suburb belongs to the City of Liverpool Government area.

Austral provides a well connected lifestyle conveniently located 5km from Leppington Train Station, 8km from Carnes Hill Marketplace, 18km to Liverpool and under an hour from the Sydney CBD.

The community provides space and freedom offering a variety of impressive living options suiting all lifestyles, needs and budgets of residents.

Elderslie offers close access to public transport and motorways whilst moments away from the Hume highway connecting residents to the Southern Highlands and the stunning beaches and national parks of the Wollongong region.

The area

Community located within South West Sydney, offering a well connected lifestyle with a wide range of new infrastructure and amenities.

The market

Land and brand new homes.

Urban. Land Housing

The lifestyle

Stay well connected with major roads, transport options and a family friendly community close to schools, shops, local parks and amenities.

Good living for...

First home buyers, professionals, retirees and young families with kids.

U.